

THE SOCIO-ECONOMIC FOOTPRINT OF TOBACCO PRODUCTION IN

ARGENTINA

Argentina

produces approximately 90

MILLION KG OF TOBACCO

THERE ARE OVER

23,000

TOBACCO GROWERS
in Argentina

Three circular inset images. The top-left shows a field of young tobacco plants in rows. The top-right shows a wide view of a plowed field with rows of furrows. The bottom-right shows a woman in an orange jacket harvesting tobacco leaves from a plant.

TOBACCO LEAF exports generate more than

US$

125

million

A black silhouette of the map of Argentina. A large green arrow curves from the top of the map towards the right.

SALTA AND JUJUY (FC Virginia)
AND MISIONES
(Burlley)

ARE THE PRINCIPAL TOBACCO
growing regions