CIGARRO DOMINICANO Magazine Celebrates the World Tobacco Growers' Day!

Today, October 28th, CIGARRO DOMINICANO Magazine honors the millions of tobacco growers around the world, those whose extraordinary dedication to the field lay the foundation for the creation of premium cigars.

A premium cigar is not just a product; it is a masterpiece born directly from the soil, and the tobacco growers are trui true artisans. From the delicate selection of seeds of the harvest toafs by leaf, their hands-on expertise seeddies to the every detail. It their ancestral leaf by microclɔnates, soil nutrient: or flavors, complex flavors, and perfect elasticity required to the rich aromas, and filler leaves.

Tobacco growers protect the legacy of the land, turning raw nature into a luxury experience prized by connoisseurs worldwide. Without you, we

We also acknowledge the International Tobacco Growers' Association (ITGA) for amplifying the voices of these gericultural artisans and defending the sustainable livelihoods that make this timeless craft possible.
